Overview

Complementary additional offering as part of the customer onboarding process:

- High-level double materiality exercise
- PR and marketing pack

Further information

1. High-Level Double Materiality Exercise

- Overview: This exercise is a facilitated approach involving key executive team members, using Veriport's materiality framework tool to identify and score ESG pillars, themes, and focus areas through the double materiality approach.
- Process: Conducted via Microsoft Teams meetings, the exercise engages executives in discussions to prioritise sustainability topics based on financial and ESG impacts.
- Deliverable: Companies will receive a document summarising the results, highlighting the most significant material issues identified.

3. PR and Marketing Pack

- Overview: A toolkit designed to assist companies in communicating their sustainability efforts effectively.
- Components:
 - Press Release: An official statement to media outlets detailing the company's sustainability profile, objectives, initiatives and achievements.
 - PowerPoint Deck: A presentation that outlines the company's sustainability context and industry materiality profile.
- Purpose: To enhance the company's public image and stakeholder engagement through well-crafted sustainability communications.
